Brief Analysis

Bruce is a Yang Wood Person that born in the heavy month of water, since the frozen water can't produce wood element, he will require strong Yang Fire to rebalance his portfolio. However, we can't find the Yang Fire in his life pillars (not taking time into consideration). For your recollection, the best combination of stem for Wood(甲) would be Yin Fire(丁) and Yang Metal(庚), in which appears on Bruce stems. This combination makes him rich and famous.

The weak Yin Fire(丁) in his month stem is not a substitute to Yang Fire. He needed strong Fire to sustain his wealth and fortune; unfortunately his destiny pillars consist of only Metal and Woods (from age 5-35), which is mismatched. Metal will create more water at the same time destroy wood energies. Bruce passed away at the age of 32, 1973, Yin Water and Wet Earth(癸丑), both elements that unfavorable for him. With his already weak Wood energies being destroyed and annual pillars of unfavorable elements, perhaps this is the only logical explanation of his death.
