Face Reading

Chinese face reading places a great deal of emphasis on a person's eyes. The period that the eye governs a person's life journey is from age 35 to age 40. According to the western scientific approach known as Neuro-Linguistic Programming, or NLP, a person's eye movements can reflect his or her thoughts and confidence. Certain eye movements can access information or repressed emotion or even provide clues as to whether a person is telling the truth or not. While NLP is recently quite well known in the West, this method was actually created by the Chinese some 3,000 years ago!

Tip of the month: A person with big eyes, also known as 'child eyes', is generally a trusting and, sometimes naïve, person (and, the reverse is often true, too). Please do not take advantage of him or her!

Chinese Names

Did you know that some pen strokes are meant for females and some just for males! Numbered strokes such as 11, 15, 24, 42 and 35 are less aggressive and have a feminine quality (with the right combinations). As such, they are preferably for females only. Whereas strokes such as 13, 17, 21, 23, 29 and 33 have an aggressive quality and are suitable for men only. Nevertheless, there are always exceptions to the rule: the totality of the names, including balancing strokes, is critical.

Feng Shui

Are you always quarrelling with your loved ones? Don't blame your spouse. Blame it on Feng Shui!

Every year, the number 3 star in the 'quarrel' sector instigates agents that cause nice couples and family get into 'oral' fights that strain their relationships. If this number 3 star is found located in your front door, bedroom or kitchen, you will face constant and unnecessary arguments over tiny little issues. This star is wood-in-nature according to the Five Elements theory. The good news is that solving such a problem is easy. Place any one (but not all) of the following items to drain the wood energy in such location.

1. Red or pink carpet/curtains/cloths
2. Red labels with auspicious words (i.e., Merry X'mas, Happy Chinese New Year - Gong Xi Fa Chai, etc.)
3. Music box - play it constantly

TIP: 2006 number three star is located in the central sector.
